European Academy of Clinical Leadership

- a project by AEMH - in collaboration with UEMS

Dr. Erich Theo Merholz, AEMH-President

Preamble:

Clinical Doctors are in the centre of the clinical leadership activity/competency

Relevance

- In the past, hospitals were led by doctors;
- The modern option tends to favour trained managers, most frequently non-physicians;

Relevance

- An increasing body of evidence shows that appointing physicians into leadership positions secure:
  - improved hospital performance
  - Improved patient care

More clinician participation in hospital management = increased organizational performance in terms of:

- care quality
- efficiency
- lower morbidity
- increased patient satisfaction
